(AILY AND WEEKLY) An Independent Democratic paper devoted to the material and political attrests of Roanoke and Southwest Virginia.

DO YOU ADVERTISE?

"To discontinue an advertisement," says John Wanamaker, "is like taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let the public know it. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

STREETS ONCE AGAIN.

Once more we return to our mutton. The failure of the council to do anything towards making the condition of eral health of the people better obliges us to do this.

It is a matter of necessity and not of luxury. Health is something that should be carefully guarded. It is the foundation stone of all happiness. Without it we can enjoy nothing.

Naturally Roanoke is a healthy city. The land lays well and can be nicely drained at but a comparatively small outlay. But even if we do not have the drainage immediately, the dauger to health might be largely decreased by keeping the streets clear of garbage and rubbish of all kinds. It rots in the hot sun and the stench that arises is as bad as that coming from an- oleomar- 2492 garine factory.

Let the Council empower the street committee to do the work.

THAT POLICE CENSUS.

The suggestion made in yesterday's Times that a police census of the city be made has met with very general approval and the council will make a wise move if they carry it out.

It is now settled beyond a doubt that the work of the enumerators has been very badly done and Roanoke's popt lation will not reach within several tion will not reach within several thousands of what was expected. That the people are here there is no doubt; the trouble is that they have not been "I CERTIFY that with the state of thousands of what was expected. That the deposited, assuring full payment of all prizes of this drawing. "HERMINIO, ARGTEAGA, "Interventor." counted.

Roanoke is now the third city in the State in point of wealth; that she is the State in point of wealth; that she is the York Draft, Expressor Register of third in point of population no one Letter, American money. Collections can be made by Express Companies or can be made by Express Companies or familiar with the enterprises and busipess here and elsewhere will doubt. Let us have a police census and sattle the question to the satisfaction of further information address

THEY ARE OUT-CLASSED.

Practice was wanting previous to their trip to Roanoke, and if the team will do daily work on the diamond and have three or four games with some team near home so as to get the game practice, the ability is certainly in the club, and they can defeat Roanoke. The boys say they will redeem themselves. "So mote it be."

This was what the Bristol News says in referring to the recent series of tall games here. We are glad that he News has such a good opinion of he abilities of the Border City players. Certainly it is not shared in Roanoxe. The Bristol boys are gentlemen in every sense of the word, but they don't w to play ball.

We have here a very good second nine composed of the younger talent and if the gentlemen from Bristol want revenge they can have it by playing RADAM'S MICROBE KILLE

A "SANDWICH" MAN.

The question as to whether or not President HARRISON has become a "sandwich" man is presenting itself to the serious consideration of all good American citizens.

Has he or has he not become an advertising sign for JOHN WANAMAX-ER's great Philadelphia store? It tegins to look like it, and if we don't watch matters pretty closely, before we can say Jack Robinson the postmaster will have a sign printed on the front of the White House.

Here is an editorial advertisement found in the columns of the Philadelphia Record. It is good:

There are three useful articles that the President is surely in need of.
His best suit of gray cheviot doesn t fit him, and, besides, is well worn.
The trousers sag at the knee and the coat wrinkles in the back. Plainly speaking, the President badly needs a new suit.

"In addition to this the pearl-gray Derby is a relic of an antique pas.. The hat is out of shape and out of date. Last of all, the Presidert appears to be rather short on cravata. The plain band of black satin which encircles his throat is tarnished wit a age and creased with continuous
